The Pontifical University of the Holy Cross started in 1984 with 41 students as a Roman Centre. In 1998 it was raised to the rank of Pontifical University by Pope St. John Paul II. Today, it has about 1,500 students from 80 countries. Over the past 39 years it has conferred 1679 doctoral degrees and 4068 Licentiate degrees. From its graduates the Popes have made 70 bishops - one of them an Australian - and 2 cardinals.

The Pontifical University of the Holy Cross Foundation, based in Sydney, since 1999 has funded 53 scholarships for priests and seminarians to study at this university. It needs help to continue assisting disadvantaged students.
